

At a Probate Court held at the Office of the Judge of Probate in Quincy on the 29th day of May A.D. 1833 before Henry H. Snow Judge of the Court of Probate for the County of Adams and State of Illinois.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Richard Brandy had departed this life leaving personal property in the County of Adams and Archibald Williams having applied to administer the estate of said deceased and the said Archibald Williams having given bond according to law. The following letter of administration was granted to him.

State of Illinois
County of Adams} set
County of Adams} set

The people of the State of Illinois.

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting:

I know y.e. that whereas Richard Brandy of ~~Adams~~ County, State of Illinois, died intestate, as it is said, on or about the ~~—~~ day of A.D. 1832 having at the time of his decease personal property in this State which may be lost, or destroyed or diminished in value, if speedy care be not taken of the same; to the end therefore that said property may be collected and preserved for those who shall appear to have a legal right or interest therein, we do hereby appoint Archibald Williams of the County of Adams and State of Illinois, administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, where of the said Richard Brandy at the time of his decease, with full power and authority to secure and collect the said property and debts, wheresoever the same may be found in this State, and in general to do and perform all other acts which now are or hereafter may be required of him by law.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, 3rd Archibald Williams
Quincy this 29th day of May A.D. 1833 with his private Seal affixed thereto by me scol. yet provided

Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate

State of Illinois
County of Adams

I do solemnly swear, that I will well and truly administer all and singular the goods and chattels, rights, credits, and effects of James Tucker deceased, and pay all just claims and pay all just claims and charges against his estate, so far as his goods, chattels and effects shall extend, and the law charges me; unto that I will do and perform all other acts required of me by law, to the best of my knowledge and abilities.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, 3rd Archibald Williams
the 29th day of May A.D. 1833. 3
Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate

H. H. Snow

At a Probate Court held at the Office of the Judge of Probate in Quincy on the 14th day of June A.D. 1833 before Henry H. Snow Judge of the Court of Probate for the County of Adams and State of Illinois.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that James Tucker had departed this life leaving personal property in the County of ~~Adams~~ and Elisha Tucker having applied to administer the estate of said deceased and the said Elisha Tucker having given bond according to law. The following letter of administration was granted to him.

State of Illinois
County of Adams} set

The people of the state of Illinois.

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting:

I know y.e. that whereas James Tucker of ~~Adams~~ County, State of Illinois died intestate as it is said, on or about the 11th day of June A.D. 1833, having at the time of his decease personal property in this State, which may be lost, or destroyed, or diminished in value, if speedy care be not taken of the same; to the end therefore that said property may be collected and preserved for those who shall appear to have a legal right or interest therein.

we do hereby appoint Elisha Tucker of the County of ~~Adams~~ and State of Illinois, administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said James Tucker at the time of his decease, with full power and authority to secure and collect the said property, and debts, wheresoever the same may be found in this State; and in general to do and perform all other acts which now are or hereafter may be required of him by law.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, 3rd Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate in and for the said County of Adams at his Office in Quincy this 14th day of June A.D. 1833, with his private seal thereto no public seal yet provided

H. H. Snow Judge of Probate
State of Illinois
County of Adams} set

I do solemnly swear that I will well and truly administer all and singular the goods and chattels, rights, credits, and effects of James Tucker deceased, and pay all just claims and charges against his estate, so far as his goods, chattels, and effects shall extend, and the law charges me; and that I will do and perform all other acts required of me by law, to the best of my knowledge and abilities.

Elisha Tucker.
Sworn to and subscribed before me the 14th day of June A.D. 1833
H. H. Snow
Judge of Probate

S At a Probate Court held at the Office of the judge of Probate in Quincy on the 29th day of May A.D. 1833 before Henry H. Snow judge of the Court of Probate for the County of % Adams and State of Illinois It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Richard Brandy had departed this life leaving personal property in the County of Adams and Archibald Williams having applied to administer the estate of said deceased , and the said Archibald Williams having given bond according to law , the following letter of administration was granted to wit . % State of Illinois County of Adams # set The people of the State of Illinois To all to whom these presents shall come greeting : Know ye , that whereas Richard Brandy of Adams County , State of Illinois , died intestate , as it is said , on or about the - da A.D. 1832 having at the time of his decease personal property in this state , which may be lost or destroyed or diminished in value , if speedy care be not taken of the same ; to the and therefore , that said % property may be collected and preserved for those who shall appear to have a legal right or interest therein , we do hereby appoint Archibald Williams of the County of Adams and State of % Illinois , administrator of all and singular the goods and chattles rights and credits , where of the said Richard Brady at the time of his decease ; with full power and authority to secure and collect the said property and debts , wheresoever the same may be found in this state ; and in general to do and perform all other acts which now are or hereafter may be required of him by law . ! Witness Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate in and for the said County of Adams , at his Office in Quincy this 29th day of May A.D. 1833 , with his private seal affixed there being no officed seal yet provided Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate State of Illinois County of Adams I do solemnly swear , that I will well and truly administer all and singular the goods and chattles , rights , credits and effects of Richard Brady deceased , and pay all just claims and charges against his estate , so far as his goods , chattles and effects shall extend , and the law charge me ; and that I will do and perform all other acts required of me by law , to the best of my knowledge and abilities Sworn to and subscribed before me , Archibald Williams this 29th day of May A.D. 1833 . Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate # H. H. Snow and 8 At a Probate Court held at the Office of the Judge of Probate in Quincy on the 14th day of June A.D. 1833 before Henry H. Snow Judge of the Court of Probate for the County of Adams and State of Illinois It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that James Tucker had departed this life , leaving personal property in the County of Adams , and Elisha Tucker having applied to administer the estate of said deceased , and the said Elisha Tucker having given bond according to law , the following letter of administration was granted to wit : State of Illinois County of Adams # set . The people of the State of Illinois To all to whom these presents shall come , Greeting : % Know ye that whereas James Tucker of Adams County State of Illinois died intestate as it is said , on or about the 11th day of June A.D. 1833 , having at the time of his de case personal property in this state , which may be lost . or destroyed , or diminisher in value , if speedy care be not % taken of the same ; to the end therfore that said property may be collected , and preserved for those who shall appear to have a legal right or interest therein we do hereby appoint Elisha Tucker of the County of % Adams and State of Illinois , administrator of all and singular the goods and chattles rights and credits , which were of the said James Tucker at the time of his decease , with full power and authority to secure and collect the said property , and debts , wheresoever the same may be found in this state ; and in general to do and perform all other acts which now are or hereafter may be required of him by law Witness Henry H. Snow Judge of Probate , in and for the said County of Adams at his Office in Quincy this 14th day of June A.D. 1833 , with his private seal , there being no public seal yet provided H. H. Snow Judge of Probate ! to % State of Illinois % County of Adams #¬ Set . I do solemnly swear that I will well and truly administer all and singular the goods and chattles , rights , credits and effects of James Tucker deceased , and pay all just claims and charges against his estate , so far as his goods , chattles , and % and effects shall extend , and the law charge me ; and that I will do and perform all other acts required of me by law , to the best of my knowledge and abilities . Elisha Tucker % Sworn to and subscribed before % me this 14th day of June A.D. 1833 Judge of Probate ) H. H. Snow

Citation:

"Adams, Illinois, United States records," images, FamilySearch (<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3Q9M-C955-9Q2V-9?view=fullText> : Jan 29, 2026), image 672 of 1043; Adams County (Illinois). Assessor, Adams County (Illinois). Probate Justice of the Peace, Illinois. Circuit Court (Adams County).

Image Group Number: 007657728

<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3Q9M-C955-9Q2V-9?view=fullText>